

Napa Valley Register

Western artists journey to NV Arts Festival

More than 300 original paintings by 27 Western representational artists will be on exhibit and sale Saturday at the fourth annual Napa Valley Art Festival in Yountville.

The event is 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 20 at 6516 Washington St. Admission is free.

Artists' painting demonstrations at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. featuring Brent Jensen and Clark Mitchell respectively.

This is a juried event that attracted entries throughout the West. The judges are Kathryn Stats and C.W. Mundy. Participating artists include Brent Jensen, Timothy Horn, Terry Miura, Bryan Mark Taylor, Clark Mitchell, Terri Ford, Kristine Pallas, Douglas Morgan, Jeanette LeGrue, Paul Kratter, Christin Coy and J. Thomas Soltesz.

“We love coming to the Napa Valley Art Festival each year because of the wide variety of paintings being shown” said collectors Erin and Alex Gray from Berkeley. “The quality of the art is top-notch.”

Net proceeds benefit the Connolly Ranch Education Center in Napa. A complete list of participating artists, with links to their websites, is at NapaValleyArtFestival.com.

Thursday, August 18, 2011